Best of Top End 7^{1/2} - day birding tour I

23 Aug - 31 Aug 2025

Gouldian Finches © Laurie Ross

One of Australia's top birding destinations, the Northern Territory's 'Top End' includes tantalizing destinations such as Kakadu National Park, Nitmiluk National Park, Pine Creek, Katherine and Jubara / Gregory National Park (Timber Creek Region). A raft of wonderful birds inhabit this scenic area, including the sought-after Gouldian Finch, the rare Hooded Parrot, the localized Chestnut-quilled Rock Pigeon, the elusive Red Goshawk; the stunning Rainbow Pitta and many other specialties. In addition, we'll look for Saltwater Crocodile, the endemic Short-eared Rock-wallaby and other macropods. During the tour we can expect up to ten finch species including Gouldian, Masked and Star Finches and Yellow-rumped and Pictorella Mannikins; parrots such as the endemic Hooded Parrot, Northern Rosella, Red-winged Parrot, Cockatiel, Budgerigar, Red-tailed Black Cockatoo; pigeons including Chestnut-quilled and White-quilled Rock-pigeon, Partridge Pigeon; quails and button-quails; a variety of Honeyeaters; and a raft of waterfowl and good chance of Black Bittern and Great-billed Heron. This is also a very good time of the year to see raptors. Join us for this exciting tour in Australia's Top End!

ITINERARY

Best of Top End 7-day birding tour I

Day 0: 23 Aug '25. Arrival. Make your own way to our hotel where we meet for introductions and dinner tonight. Accommodation: Club Tropical Resort, Lee Point, Darwin (en-suite room; meals: D).

Day 1: 24 Aug '25. Darwin to Kakadu NP. Our guide will pick you up after an early breakfast. We'll visit Buffalo Creek, where, depending on the tide, we have a chance of glimpsing the elusive Chestnut Rail. Other mangrove species here include Black Butcherbird, Green-backed Gerygone, Yellow White-eye, Mangrove Whistler and Azure Kingfisher. On the nearby beach we may see the huge Beach Thick-knee. We'll visit one of the local reserves containing Monsoon Forest to search for Grey Whistler, Arafura Fantail, Little Shrike-thrush, Green-backed Gerygone, Rose-crowned Fruit-dove and our main target Rainbow Pitta. In the Darwin Botanic Gardens we will be looking for Rufous and Barking Owls on their day roosts and then we'll drive to the Fogg Dam wetlands, originally a rice-growing scheme, but thousands of Magpie Geese put an end to that and the area is now a nature reserve. The reedbeds and lily-covered ponds are home to birds like Brolga, Magpie Geese, Black-necked Stork, Royal Spoonbill, Comb-crested Jacana, White-browed and Baillon's Crake, Green Pygmy-goose, Broad-billed and Paperbark Flycatchers, Tawny Grassbird, and Golden-headed Cisticola. In the adjacent woodlands we have a chance of Rainbow Pitta and Lemon-bellied Flycatcher.

Towards the end of the day we arrive in Kakadu, Australia's largest terrestrial national park. Covering almost 20,000 sq. km, it is a place of great ecological and biological diversity. The rock escarpments are a treasure trove of Aboriginal rock paintings. And the birdlife and wildlife is spectacular! Along the way we visit one of Kakadu's finest wetlands, Mamukala, a large billabong that can hold thousands of waterbirds. From the bird hide we can see waterfowl such as Magpie Goose, Radjah Shelduck, Hardhead, Plumed and Wandering Whistling-Duck, Green Pygmy-Goose and egrets and herons include Little, Intermediate and Great Egret, Nankeen Night-Heron and White-necked and Pied Heron. After checking in at our hotel in Jabiru we will head South toward Nawurlandja to bird among the sandstone cliffs and watch the sunset. Targets here are Banded Fruit-dove, Partridge Pigeon, Chestnut-quilled Rock-pigeon, White-lined Honeyeater, Sandstone Shrike-thrush and the Sandstone race of Helmeted Friarbird. Crocodile Hotel, Jabiru (en-suite room; meals: B, L, D)..

Day 2: 25 Aug '25. Kakadu NP. An early morning to head north to Bardadjilidji for an early walk, here we will be looking for Chestnut-quilled Rock-pigeon, Sandstone Shrike-thrush and maybe a Rainbow Pitta or Rose-crowned Fruit-dove. After the walk our next spot is Ubirr for the rest of the morning. This spectacular view over the floodplain can also be a great place for Chestnut-quilled Rock-pigeon and Sandstone Shrike-thrush. Rocky escarpments such as Ubirr not only have Aboriginal rock art paintings but are also a good place to see White-lined Honeyeater, Chestnut-quilled Rock Pigeon and Sandstone Shrike-thrush, along with the newly split Wilkin's (Eastern) Short-eared Rock Wallaby. If the tide is right we will check out Cahill crossing to see its famous crocodiles feeding together then it will be time to head back for lunch. After a break in the middle of the day we will head to Nourlangie to clean up any of the endemics we have missed, this is also a great spot to see some Aboriginal artwork. There are also Black and Little Red Flying-Foxes here, as well as many exotic lizards, colourful turtles, and unusual butterflies.

We spend the night again in the township of Jabiru, in the heart of Kakadu. Accommodation: Crocodile Hotel, Jabiru (en-suite room; meals: B, L, D).

Day 3: 26 Aug '25. Kakadu to Pine Creek. We start the day early with a cruise on the Yellow Waters, one of Australia's important areas for waterfowl. Watch the sunrise over the water teeming with up to 70 species including Plumed and Wandering Whistling-ducks, Pacific Black Duck, White-necked and White-faced Herons, Rufous Night-heron, Australasian Grebe, Australasian Darter, Glossy, Arafura Fantail, Buff-sided Robin and Paperbark Flycatcher. Azure Kingfisher can be found along the river and we should see Forest and Sacred Kingfishers. Some of the rarer birds we may encounter include Great-billed Heron, Little Kingfisher and Black Bittern. After the cruise we will head back to the lodge to check out and have lunch before heading south to Pine Creek and our accommodation for the night, along the way we have a chance for Australia's rarest bird of prey: the Red Goshawk, which nests in the area. The afternoon is spent around Pine Creek tracking down the endemic Hooded Parrot, along with Red-winged Parrot, Northern Rosella, Varied and Red-collared Lorikeet. We'll also encounter Little Corella, Sulphur-crested and Red-tailed Black Cockatoo. Accommodation: Pine Creek Railway Resort (en-suite room; meals: B, L, D).

Day 4: 27 Aug '25. Pine Creek to Victoria River. Some early morning birding around Pine Creek to pick up any parrots we may still need, then we head south for our first chance to see the spectacular Gouldian Finch, other birds in the area include Hooded Parrots, Long-Tailed Finch, Masked Finch, Double-barred Finch, Banded Honeyeater, Great Bowerbird and Brown Quail. Along the way we'll witness the amazing magnetic termite mounds. These > 3m/10ft tall mounds are dotted throughout the savannah-like landscape. We will also be on the lookout for Dollarbird and Silver-crowned Friarbird and further chances of the rare Red Goshawk. After a morning around the beautiful Edith Falls on the Katherine River in Nitmiluk National Park (Gouldian Finch, Hooded Parrot, Northern Rosella and a nice selection of honeyeaters) we head south to Katherine for lunch before heading west to the Victoria River Region. Along the way we will stop at a few waterholes to see what we can find: Gouldian Finch is high on the target list. The afternoon at Victoria River can be spent searching for Purple-crowned Fairy-wrens along the banks of the Victoria River or go looking for White-quilled Rock-pigeons which are found up on the escarpments. Accommodation: Victoria River Roadhouse (en-suite room; meals: B, L, D).

Day 5: 28 Aug '25. Victoria River to Timber Creek. The morning will be spent around the roadhouse at Victoria River looking for Purple-crowned Fairy-wren, birds of prey and finches. Alternatively we may explore the escarpments of the Victoria River National Park which means a moderate hike with some steep sections. The rewards will (hopefully) be: White-quilled Rock Pigeon, Sandstone Shrikethrush, Little Woodswallow, Yellow-tinted and Black-chinned Honeyeater. Back around lunchtime and a short break then we'll head further west. The savannah-like landscape here is reminiscent of Africa, dotted with the odd-looking Boab trees. Arriving at Timber creek we start looking for the various finches that live in this habitat, such as Star, Double-barred, Zebra and Gouldian Finch, as well as Pictorella and Yellow-rumped Mannikin and with luck, Chestnut-backed Buttonquail. Accommodation: Timber Creek Hotel (en-suite cabins; meals: B, L, D).

Day 6: 29 Aug '25. Timber Creek to Pine Creek. This morning we will be up early again to bird another great area, where our targets will be Pictorella Mannikin, Budgerigar, Cockatiel and maybe another Gouldian Finch or two. We're sure to add more species to the list here, including Grey-headed and Grey-fronted Honeyeater. After a morning in the area we start heading back east and to our accommodation in Katherine for the night. After checking in we will bird one of the many sites around Katherine either looking for Chestnut-backed Button-quail or head south to look for the rare Northern Crested Shrike-tit. There is also a nice selection of honeyeaters including Banded and Rufous-throated Honeyeaters. Accommodation: Pine Tree Motel, Katherine (en-suite room; meals: B, L, D).

Day 7: 30 Aug '25. Pine Creek to Darwin. Depending on what we are missing we will determine where to go this morning. Possibilities around Pine Creek include wetlands where Partridge Pigeon may come in to drink, while Olive-backed Orioles frequent the trees, Red-backed Kingfishers sit on the wires and various waterfowl forage on the wetlands although we should have picked up all waterbirds by now. Heading north we have further chances of birding rainforest patches looking for Buff-sided Robin, various honeyeaters, Silver-backed Butcherbird, Arafura Fantail and Varied Lorikeet. We'll bird our way back to picking up any birds that we may still need. Arriving back in Darwin by late-afternoon. Accommodation: Club Tropical Resort, Lee Point, Darwin (en-suite room; meals: B, L, D).
