

South-West Western Australia

22 - 29 November 2028

The south-west corner of Western Australia is one of the most bird-rich areas in the country. Our 7 day, 7 night fully accommodated tour begins and ends in Perth (WA) and takes in a range of habitats including wetlands, open woodlands, sandy heathlands, the Stirling Ranges and tall Karri forest. This is a very pleasant area to be birding in, with mild weather and good infrastructure, yet a sense of adventure remains.

We aim to find all 13 of the South West endemics, including the three notorious 'skulkers' (Noisy Scrubbird, Western Bristlebird and Western (Black-throated) Whipbird). In the karri forests country we'll look for Western Rosella, White-breasted Robin, Red-capped Parrot, Western Whistler and Western Corella; while exploring the dry woodlands we should add Mal-leefowl, Shy Heathwren and Purple-gaped Honeyeater. Long-billed (Baudin's) and Short-billed (Carnaby's) Black Cockatoo, Rufous Treecreeper, Western Yellow Robin, Gilbert's Honeyeater, Red-winged and Blue-breasted Fairy-wren await us on this trip. Coastal birding is not forgotten with seabirds, a visit to a Bridled Tern colony and Rock Parrot, Red-eared Firetail and Western Fieldwren; we expect to see up to 150 species, including all 13 endemics!

ITINERARY

Day 0: 22 November 2028

Arrival in Perth

Arrive in Perth and make your own way to our hotel (room and dinner included in tour price) for dinner and introductions.

Overnight: Perth, en-suite hotel room

Meals included: D

Day 1: 23 November 2028

Wungong Gorge and Dryandra Woodlands

We'll have an introductory walk around Kings Park, directly adjacent to our rooms, before we visit some magnificent wetlands where we can see Blue-billed and Musk Duck, along with many other waterbirds and several raptors. Further afield, the Wungong Gorge is a good spot for Western Australian endemics such as Western Rosella, Red-capped Parrot and Red-winged Fairy-wren.

The Dryandra Woodlands are our final destination today and we'll look for Short-billed Black (Carnaby's) Cockatoo, Blue-breasted Fairy-wren, Western Thornbill, Elegant Parrot and Purple-crowned Lorikeet. This is also a good area to observe native animals such as Numbat, Brush-tailed Bettong and Echidna. We'll watch the sunset over a waterhole, where birds come in for their last drink of the day, before we head off to spotlight for the above-mentioned mammals and for Bush Stone-curlew and Tawny Frogmouth.

Overnight: Narrogin, en-suite motel rooms

Meals included: B, L, D

Day 2: 24 November 2028

Dryandra Woodlands and Stirling Ranges

We will spend a large part of the day exploring the Dryandra woodlands. In addition to the species listed above, we also expect to see the western race of Regent Parrot, which is quite different from the eastern sub-species; Western Gerygone, Rufous Treecreeper, Blue-breasted Fairy-wren, Painted Buttonquail, Western Yellow Robin, the western race of Varied Sittella and other good species.

Later in the day we'll drive to the beautiful Stirling Ranges. On the way we check a site for the recently-split Western Fieldwren, and may be lucky enough to come across our first Western (Black-throated) Whipbird!

Gilbert's Honeyeater, Splendid Fairywren, Rufous Treecreeper, and Western Yellow Robin. All photos by Peter Waanders.

Overnight: Stirling Ranges Retreat, en-suite cabins

Meals included: B, L, D

Day 3: 25 November 2028

Stirling Ranges and South Coast

This morning we'll explore the beautiful Stirling Ranges where we'll search for Malleefowl, Square-tailed Kite, Purple-gaped and Tawny-crowned Honeyeater and Southern Scrub Robin. Late afternoon brings us to the South Coast, ready for an early start tomorrow morning. We'll head to Cheynes Beach to look for Brush Bronzewing and Western Wattlebird. We'll have our first attempt at tracking down one or more of the three skulkers that inhabit this area: Noisy Scrubbird, Western Bristlebird and Western (Black-throated) Whipbird.

Overnight: Cheynes Beach Caravan Park, en-suite cabins

Meals included: B, L, D

Day 4: 26 November 2028

South Coast exploration

We'll spend the entire day birding the South Coast for the notorious and often elusive trio of Noisy Scrubbird, Western Bristlebird and Black-throated (formerly Western) Whipbird. Noisy Scrubbird, one of our rarest and elusive species which was only re-discovered in 1961. We should hear each of these species multiple times as we attempt to get views of them. This is a very scenic and photogenic landscape with moors, buttongrass plains, eucalypt-covered hills and rocky outcrops. Other possible species here are Brush Bronzewing, Southern Emu-wren, Tawny-crowned Honeyeater, Rock parrot, Stubble Quail and Red-eared Firetail.

Overnight: Cheynes Beach Caravan Park, en-suite cabins

Meals included: B, L, D

Day 5: 27 November 2028

Karri forests and Pemberton

A back-up morning for any species we may still need at Cheynes Beach; then we pack up and head west towards the giant Karri forests around Pemberton and Manjimup. En-route, we'll stop to look at Lake Muir, a Ramsar-listed wetland where we'll find the geographically limited population of the Western Corella. In Pemberton itself we'll visit the tall Gloucester Tree, where we'll find Western Rosella, White-breasted Robin, Red-winged Fairy-wren and Common Bronzewing, presenting good camera opportunities.

White-cheeked Honeyeater, Western Grey Kangaroo, Southern Emu-wren, Brush Bronzewing, and Rock Parrot. All photos by Peter Waanders.

Overnight: Augusta Chalets, private rooms in large cottages of varying sizes, some with 2 rooms, some with 3 rooms, with shared facilities, on the edge of the forest with scenic views.

Meals included: B, L, D

Day 6: 28 November 2028

Augusta and Cape Leeuwin

Our last full day! After picking up any species we still need in the Karri forests we bird around Augusta on Cape Leeuwin where species we hope to find include Hooded Plover, Rock Parrot and Brush Bronzewing. Seawatching off the headland may produce Yellow-nosed, Black-browed or Shy Albatross and Great-winged Petrel.

Overnight: Augusta Chalets, private rooms in large cottages of varying sizes, some with 2 rooms, some with 3 rooms, with shared facilities, on the edge of the forest with scenic views.

Meals included: B, L, D

Day 7: 29 November 2028

Return to Perth and departure

Our final day and another visit to the headland again this morning and/or we may pull in at the Cape Naturaliste Lighthouse to pick up any other species we require. En-route to Perth we'll visit the harbour at Mandurah to check for terns and we'll finish the day with a visit to Penguin Island (with its Little Penguins and Bridled Tern colony) while checking for any missing birds on our list, to arrive back in Perth in the afternoon. You will be dropped off at a hotel of your choice in the city centre, or at the airport (not before 4pm).

Meals included: B, L

Western (Black-throated) Whipbird, Western Fieldwren, Short-billed Black-Cockatoo, Western Spinebill, and Australian (28) Ringneck All photos by Peter Waanders.

PRACTICAL DETAILS

LEADERS

Bellbird leader.

DIFFICULTY

Low to medium level of fitness required. The tour has a relaxed pace and walks are on varying surfaces, from paved forest roads to uneven trails with some short climbs. We generally walk slowly, with lots of stops. You can opt out of any challenging walks.

ACCOMMODATION

Private en-suite rooms in hotels or lodges, although on the two nights in Augusta each bathroom is shared between two rooms. Standards of the lodgings are generally very comfortable. Expect slow, if any, wi-fi access.

CLOTHING

Lightweight long pants, t-shirt and long-sleeved shirt, over the top of which you can wear layers that can be taken off as necessary, including a jumper / sweater and a wind- and rain-proof jacket.

WHAT TO BRING

Please travel light. Binoculars, camera, mobile phone, chargers, power adaptors (British style), strong insect repellent, sunscreen, personal medications, travel umbrella, hat, water bottle, hand sanitizer. Sturdy footwear recommended. Scopes, super-telephoto lenses with tripods, and heavy suitcases are discouraged.
